

GemaHolidays listing and online holiday booking site

GemaHolidays website is up and running, ready to register you as a holiday provider. GemaHolidays offers a new take on a holiday location listing site. We've provided a clean, professionally-designed site that is easy for customers to use. Your listings will appear on searchable Google Maps. This provides an interface most web users are already familiar with, making it easy and faster for them to find you.

Free basic listings

Complete the online form with your details and your listing goes live once it is checked by our team

Upgraded listings for GemaPark subscribers, including live online booking on the site.

If you like the look of GemaPark, but don't want a website of your own, we can provide access to GemaPark, so your staff can manage park bookings effectively. We can also enable online bookings for you direct from GemaHolidays.

Live extended content

As well as technical staff, the GemaHolidays team include park owners, booking system experts and a range of seasoned campers. We're pooling this knowledge into a GemaHolidays Blog. This provides a platform where we will discuss key issues holiday-makers experience, share tips and tricks for successful park holidays and also promote parks listed on the site.

This editorial aspect of GemaHolidays places us ahead of competitors in the eyes of your potential customers and in search engines. In addition to our blog we'll soon go live with Facebook pages, a Twitter stream and newsfeeds – all potentially talking about your park. These added outlets ensure the best promotion available for your park, to ensure you achieve high occupancy and maintain strong pricing.

The comprehensive listings, in an easy to use format, with fresh content arriving all the time ensure great online promotion for your park.
